

THE DAILY TRIBUNE

Take a Look at Us, Because We're Looking Out for You
Murray Weinstein, Publisher and Moe Weinstein, Editor-In-Chief
June 13, 1934

Wilson Murders Polaski Mobbed-up Law Firm Finished by Ida May Weinstein

Noted mob lawyer, Bud Polaski, surrounded by his Moroni clients, was shot to death by a gunman hired by his former partner, Joe Wilson. The Wilson and Polaski firm is famous for the vigorous and successful defense of gangsters of all shapes and sizes. But now, with Polaski dead and Wilson on the run, gone from Gotham, the firm has been shuttered and the criminal element must look elsewhere for defense from the law.

*Polaski (standing left,) and Wilson (standing right) at a recent hearing for a Moroni hitman
Photo by Chester Figg*

Wound Ravens Go to Ground by Harry Lipshitz

The notorious Wound Raven gang, an Irish outfit mostly active in Crime Alley, The Bowery and Otisburg, has been strangely silent lately. After the destruction of noted terrorist Declan O'Toole, the gang appears to be in disarray, running scared. When questioned about this lack of gang activity, apart from a raid on an East Siders' garage hideout, Lt. Jack Riley of the Crime Alley Precinct is quoted as saying "it's just a case of good police work catching up with the bad element. We are now free to focus full time on hunting down Space Cop and Sweater Vest for killing Inspector Bronski."

University Looses Contact with Professor by Ida May Weinstein

Dr. Louis Maelstrom, rising star of the Gotham University History Department, has been in Mexico for several weeks, but University officials have lost all contact with his expedition. Expedition spokesman, Kermit Roosevelt, has said that such breaks in communications are to be expected, it is Mexico after all, but the situation is being monitored and appropriate steps will be taken at the appropriate time. Dr. Hans Gruberman, a noted critic of the expedition, has said that it would be a shame for such a brilliant scholar to be harmed on a fool's errand.