Issue #11, October 31, YN 1025.

"All the things that people are talking about"

ITEM #1: Rumors of Weird Doings in Port Sinxth 10/8

A pair of dimwitted servants claim to have seen a dead man, a druid no less, brought back to life and dance around in a mystic jig in the upper chambers of the palace at Port Sinxth. As the old saying of the forest Elves goes, the stupider the witness, the surer the truth. Of course the Casino Gnomes say that there's a sucker born every minute.

ITEM #2: Sinxth Holds Tower Biter 10/14

Many confirmed reports have come in that say that Tower Biter, belonging to Baron Braxx, is now in the hands of mercenaries in the employ of Earl Ronstudd of Sinxth. No fighting was reported to have taken place. Was it witchcraft? Had the tower been abandoned?

ITEM #3: Ingvar Raids Braxx Village 10/19

Jarl Ingvar of Barlborg led a large raiding party into the lands of Braxx. He smashed the garrison and looted the village of the Hoborg settlement at Pubus (V5). Hr lost less than a handful of men and slew many score of Hoborgs (they suck).

ITEM #4: Battle Imminent on Lorn Frontier 10/30

Baron Humbert of Lorn has led South a large force, including Captain Brilliant and the dreaded Scaramando to attempt to drive Earl Ronstudd out of Carrotia and Oniono and avenge the death of the Druid Gork. Troops of Orcs bearing Fang banners were seen to march with him. Earl Ronstudd seems well prepared and eager to meet the Lorn attack.
